charged as one day at the applicable daily rate. No allowance for materials is included in the quoted rates. Materials would be provided as required at prices in accordance with our general pricing practice for spare parts.

The selection of the personnel for each service call would be at our discretion and would be based on our diagnosis of the service required and the personnel available. The labor classification of the personnel we would select for each service trip would determine the specific rates applicable for that service call.

This quotation will remain valid for any service provided during the period which will end 30 September 1967.
